IEEE Gender Digital Divide Working Group

To make a contribution towards the closure of the gender digital divide (defined to encompass ICT access, skills, leadership and research)

Objectives	Work Plan Action Items	Lead	Deliverables	Status/Date
To provide opportunities for information exchange and shared learning in support of bridging the gender digital divide	At each working group meeting, bring organizations to speak that have developed new initiatives, tools or resources and provide space for working group meetings to share key recent developments	Speakers to be invited by co-chairs Working group members to share recent developments	Report of meetings	Ongoing
To support IEEE members to be more inclusive in their daily interactions in their workplaces and raise awareness of the role of individuals as a complement to the role of organizations in enhancing inclusion	Exploring possibility of adding some language to the IEEE Code of Conduct on inclusion Exploring development of another resource that further elaborates what individual engineers can do to be inclusive	N. Peter Whitehead and Peter Micek Ursula Wynhoven and Peter Micek	Draft language proposal A manifesto (or how to guide) for the inclusive engineer	Some initial draft language developed to be discussed at the 24 April meeting Dialogue planned for 16 May at RightsCon
To be defined

◆IEEE