

In Memory of Manu Bhardwaj

Sometimes along our paths we have the honor and privilege to meet special people who believe anything is possible. Manu was one of those people. His "anything is possible" was bringing the power of the internet to all.

When we learned of Manu's passing we were deeply saddened and our hearts were heavy. But our hearts are warmed that we did get to work alongside him, to be part of his vision and to call him our friend. Manu brought so much to us from his knowledge and insights to his will, determination and innovation. He taught us much, inspired us and gave us hope. There are just no words to express how much we miss him. For all he has done for us and, more so, for the global efforts to connect the unconnected we will forever be grateful and we will carry forth his "anything is possible."
